Lighthouse Graphics names new operations supervisor

TYLER, Texas – Lighthouse Graphics, a division of The Lighthouse, announces the promotion of Charles Coleman as its new operations supervisor.

Coleman has been with Lighthouse Graphics for nearly a year. He began as a dark room tech and moved quickly to team leader. His new position will oversee the direction and coordination of production and plant operations. Coleman will be responsible for instilling and monitoring policies, procedures, and systems needed for these operational areas. He will also direct and support the production operations staff.

“I just thank God for the opportunity to work for an organization whose core mission is to encourage, educate and empower individuals who are sometimes overlooked and underestimated,” said Coleman.
